Can Liner Division

Can Liners for Home and Business

When you buy your trash bags from Careers Industries, you not only get a quality product, but you also help provide employment opportunities for persons with disabilities. Our Can Liners (trash bags) division manufactures, packages, and sells can liners to government agencies, businesses, organizations and individuals.

Purchase Quality Trash Bags from Careers Industries and Make a Difference

For your home or business our Can Liners are competitively priced and come in dozens of sizes and selections including environmentally-friendly, bio-degradable options. Whether it's to collect recyclables, toss your household or office waste, dispose of yard clippings or heavier types of trash, we make the bag that meets your need.

Careers Industries Can Liner division has built a reputation as a leading provider of trash bags. Each year we manufacture and package more than 13 million trash bags that are used by state agencies, local businesses and in local homes. When you purchase Can Liners from Careers Industries, you can meet a practical need and make a difference in someone's life.

Fundraising Opportunity!

If you're looking for a functional and flexible way for your non-profit organization to raise funds, consider selling Careers Industries Can Liners (trash bags) to your members, friends and community. Our can liner fundraising initiative offers a number of advantages over typical items sold such as magazines, candles and food products.
